c5 Wealth Management, LLC Acquires PCL Administrators, Inc.

Acquisition Unites Top Wealth Management Firm with Premier Pension Company

Great Falls, VA, January 25, 2008 - c5 Wealth Management, LLC, OF Great Falls, Virginia, one of the nation's top independent wealth management firms, is pleased to announce the acquisition of PCL Administrators, Inc., also of Great Falls, Virginia, a premier third-party administrator of qualified retirement plans. PCL was founded in 1974 and has a long history of success in the pension administration field. "PCL is now a wholly owned subsidiary of c5", said Paul Bennett, ChFC, CFP, and Managing Partner of c5. "We are excited about adding the ability to administer pension plans to our suite of client services", said Stan Corey, ChFC, CFP, also a Managing Partner of c5.

"The acquisition represents an emerging trend among independent wealth management firms that are broadening their client service offerings in order to maintain a competitive advantage over banks and brokerage firms", said Corey. "This diversified independent model offers clients unbiased personalized financial advice and provides advisors freedom from the constraints of proprietary product sales and commissions", added Bennett.
